

6 Develop responsibility toward the global environment

Level 1 – Perceive and describe relationships between self and the world

Level 2 – Recognize interdependence in both theoretical and practical terms

Level 3 – Articulate and empathize with diverse perspectives

Level 4 – Respond to global issues by synthesizing diverse perspectives

In majors and areas of specialization:

Level 5 – Generate theoretical and pragmatic approaches to global problems, within a disciplinary or professional context

Level 6 – Develop responsibility toward the global environment in others