

6 Develop responsibility toward the global environment

Level 1 — Perceive and describe relationships between self and the world

Level 2 — Recognize interdependence in both theoretical and practical terms

Level 3 — Articulate and empathize with diverse perspectives

Level 4 — Respond to global issues by synthesizing diverse perspectives

In majors and areas of specialization:

Level 5 — Generate theoretical and pragmatic approaches to global problems, within a disciplinary or professional context

Level 6 — Develop responsibility toward the global environment in others