

7. Effective Citizenship

Beginning Levels: Identifies significant community issues and assesses ability to act on them

Level 1 — Begins to assess one's own knowledge, skills, and other background relevant to thinking about and acting on community issues

Level 2 — Applies concepts from the disciplines to identify and describe issues that affect communities as well as strategies to address the identified issues

Intermediate Levels: Works within both organizational and community contexts to apply developing citizenship skills

Level 3 — Recognizes that effective citizenship is exercised in the context of society; learns to analyze individuals and organizations in terms of roles and structures to see how individuals work within organizations and how organizations coordinate with one another to achieve common goals

Level 4 — Applies developing citizenship skills in service to a selected community by developing an action plan with criteria for evaluation

Advanced Levels in Areas of Specialization: Takes a leadership role in addressing organizational and community issues

Level 5 — Uses discipline concepts, frameworks, and theories to identify, analyze, and recommend change in a political, social, or professional setting

Level 6 — Develops a plan for effecting change in a political, social, or professional setting, modifies plan as a result of feedback, and attempts to implement the plan to the extent practicable