

ALVERNO COLLEGE
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

OPENING DAYS OF SCHOOL - 1969

Sunday, August 31	Arrival of returning students at Alverno
Monday, September 1	Arrival of new students Program developed by Alverno College Parents Association, Alumnae Association, Academic Departments, and Students (Big Sisters)
Tuesday, September 2
2:00 p.m.	Orientation of new faculty members
4:00 p.m.	Meeting with Judson Jerome and 3 students with a group of Alverno representatives--2 administrators, 5 faculty members, and 8 students
5:45 p.m.	Cocktail Hour for all faculty members
6:15 p.m.	Faculty Dinner
8:00 p.m.	General Faculty Meeting with presentation by team from Columbia/Antioch
Wednesday, September 3
	Direction to the entire faculty and student body One-half hour: 1. Each team member introduces self 2. Discussion by the team where they indicate what they have discovered about Alverno as it relates to research in higher education 3. Panel of the team and student leaders of Alverno 4. General discussion and questions
	Direction from Communications Committee Initial Experience Committee (Film)
1:30-3:30 p.m.	Twenty groups of 40 members which include administration, faculty, and students If they discuss the risk of learning together during this period, the team will be centrally located on call
4:30 p.m.	Entire group reconvene in Auditorium
6:00 p.m.	Faculty-Student Dinner

Thursday, September 4 and
Friday, September 5

Classes meet in one and one-half hour sessions
starting at 8 a.m. - instructor and students

Friday, September 5
2:00 p.m.

Freshmen and sophomores meeting by classes to explore the possibilities of integration

At the same time, juniors and seniors meet in departmental groups

P.S.

1. Earlier in the week, possibly Thursday evening, freshman teachers and sophomore teachers meet to discuss some possibilities of integration
2. There's a great necessity of follow-up for what begins the opening week of school.
 - a. Harold Hodgenson, from Berkeley, is a possibility
 - b. The Friedenburg lecture in November is being arranged by the Education Department should fit into the total scheme
3. There is $3,000 available for these several activities